Fragmented Ties Salvadoran Immigrant Networks in America

In Fragmented Ties, Cecilia Menjívar presents a portrait of immigrant networks that is often at odds with the “overly romanticized notions of immigrant unity and solidarity” implicit in many of the depictions of immigrant networks found in the migration literature. Based on several years of fieldwork in the Mission District of San Francisco, the book examines the personal interactions, exchanges, and systems of mutual support that immigrants engage in and construct in going about the ...
