Get your rocks off: the origins, the meanings and the ...

An interesting blend of rollicking original experiments and covers of three better known artists, Get Your Rocks Off carries a wide and varied palette. The title cut, written by one Bob Dylan, is a heavy, hilarious take on one of the Basement Tapes songs. John Prine's "Pretty Good" rocks up the tempo so that it's more of a fun-loving tune rather than a comment on the times.
