Praise for The Vorrh: Book One in the Vorrh Trilogy. I really loved Brian Catling's The Vorrh. It's a hot storm of a novel bursting with art and history, sex and nature. A visionary fantasy epic that is incredibly fun to read. Wildly different, but no less remarkable. - The Guardian.

The Vorrh - Wikipedia

The Vorrh is one of the best samples of fantasy fiction that has been written in the last decades. Moreover, it is a book that walks skillfully across genres, like only very good literature can do. It is as much fantasy as it is historical fiction and steampunk, playing all along with Jungian archetypes.

The Vorrh is one of those books where you're not really sure what's going on, and you definitely don't know what it means or where it's going. It reminded me somewhat of "Gravity's Rainbow" and a little of the Gormenghast novels. It's full of sex and death and mystery and magic and life and horror and oddness. It's unaffectedly weird.
